Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. is the Federal Communications Commission broadcast licensee of KIOF-LP 97.9 FM for the Las Vegas, Nevada community.

Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. is also a multiple year applicant with the Corporation for Public Broadcasting ("CPB"). Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. was denied multiple times with inclusion to the Radio Community Service Grant funding program provided by the "bias" and "racist" Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

The CPB has impermissibly erected a barrier to the Radio Community Service Grant benefits by exercising discriminatory, exclusionary and confiscatory policies which have violated the Fair Labor Standards Act, Equal Protection Under the United States Constitution First Amendment for new applicant public broadcasters. In addition, CPB violates the 5th Amendment under the United States Constitution by providing false information to the general public.

In 2018, Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. made a new application for State of Nevada Public Broadcasting grant funds through the State of Nevada Department of Education ("NDE"). Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. was defrauded via wire and mail fraud of an electronic application for State of Nevada Public Broadcasting grant funds through a permanently revoked organization known as the Nevada Public Broadcasting Association. This wire and mail fraud of an electronic application came to Las Vegas Public Radio Inc from the President & CEO of Nevada Public Radio, the Federal Communications Commission broadcast licensee of KNPR. Ironically, through this defrauding process, it was discovered Nevada Public Radio, a "pet project" of the FCC received 80% of a weighted incentive formula with no purpose other than a money grab. The State of Nevada Attorney General was notified of these issues and chose not to prosecute to date. Why?

Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. suspects it was a target through a weaponized coordinated attack by certain actors operating in concert with the State of Nevada Department of Education and Corporation for Public Broadcasting in 2018. We suspect this is a similar trait to the Lois Learner IRS scandal of several years ago by targeting organizations, just with another different quasi federal agency trying to control the public broadcasting sector of Nevada through select enrichment of very specific 501(c)3 organizations for maintaining control of a marketplace.

FCC Chairman Ajit Pai has been made aware of the interference issues regarding the three consecutive denials by the CPB which began in 2016, 2017 and in 2018 tax years.

It is alleged that the above statements are true to the best of our knowledge and warrant further investigation by the IRS for clawbacks of federal tax-payer funds from Nevada Public Radio due to being out of compliance with the Corproation for Public Broadcasting / Inspector General.

Ironically, Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. computers were hit with malware. In 2018, a partial conversion from annual to fiscal year were hacked.

Information at Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. was lost and required us to reconstruct the entire system.

On November 4, 2019, Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. filed it's original 2018 IRS Form 990-EZ which was returned back to Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. on January 23, 2020 since 2018 IRS 990 was requested due to the total assets or gross receipts of Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. being greater than the amount allowed to file on Form 990-EZ. Las Vegas Public Radio Inc. hereby files the 2018 IRS 990 as Application pending since Las Vegas Public Radio Inc.
